Sandprints
1957

Dear Carolyn,
Ever since the eighth grade I have grown more fond of you each day until now I love you almost as much as a sister. We have had some wonderful times together and some sad ones, I'll admit, but it has been fun because of knowing you. Carolyn which one of us will get hitched first? I guess you and I will have to "batch" for a while, huh? You're luckier than you know. Just think, if you had married M-- you would have had a youngone by now and if you had married H-- you would have a heel on your hands. Someday Mr. Right will come along and when he does I know you'll grab him. Ha! I sometimes think that I'll be an old maid. Can I stay with you and Jim once-in-a-while?
When we get that diploma, I know tears will stream but we sure have accomplished something. Good luck Carolyn! Be sweet! Love,
Dulane

Dearest Carolyn,

In all these years I have found you to be the one I needed to keep me out of trouble. Although we get into a lot of meaness we manage somehow to get out. I'll never forget all these past years that we have been pals. Lets keep it that way.

You will always go far in whatever you try to do, cause you are a born brain. Some lucky fellow will get a true and I mean loving wife. Remember the night we went to Southern Pines? You better ~~watch~~ witch yourself. cause that ain't (it) nice. always stay as you are now and I'll always love you. Just because we are finishing this year (I hope) lets not forget each other. You bring your children and I'll bring mine to see you.

a friend always,

Mary

(Mrs. F. V. Hilliard)

Wonder where Jap is on all these passing Friday nights? I could never forget that night. All I can say is that I'm glad to be back in Sanford. I bet Dulane is too.

Carolyn,

Well, Well, the grand day is almost here for us. "Watcha mean", I hope it is for me too. I think that you are a "very charming and sweet girl." We have done a lot of nice and sneaky things and loads of fun too. I hope that your "dream man", with all the muscles and hair on his chest will come by and propose to you. But please, when he ask you don't say "look foreign". (ha ha) I know that you will make some young man a mighty fine wife. I hope that we can continue seeing each other and having good times together. I will never forget that night at Jim's - will you? I am tired of writing so I will stop and let someone else write awhile. You have been truly a wonderful friend.

Love you always,
Faye Buchanan
"Lavernie"

Best of luck to a slob.
"You crook"
Thanks for telling you know who about you know what. I hope you know when school is out. I will see you over Xmas.
Good luck to a very sweet girl. Best wishes!
Love, Gary

Carolyn,
We haven't seen much of each other in the last couple of years, but I commemberd many happy incidents that occured while we were at Robert St.
Best Wishes
Jeff Hi

SANDPRINTS

Nineteen fifty-seven . . . What is it?

To the students of Sanford Central High School it's more than just a year; more than mere passage of time. It's a step forward, a step in our progress from being just plain kids to being capable, dependable adults who are to live in an atomic era which has acquired the "Forward Look."

Your 1957 SANDPRINTS represents the evidences of progress in our modern school. Truly we can say Central has taken on the "Forward Look."

SANFORD CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

SANFORD, NORTH CAROLINA

CENTRAL HIGH

"The Forward Look" can be seen in our campus which we are so proud of. There is the gymnasium, which not only affords us the pleasure of our athletic activities, but also our school dances are held there. With the aid of the modern facilities, we all enjoy the fine food in the cafeteria. Most elaborate is our splendid home economics building where we learn the art of home-making. The science building, just completed this year, gives us the opportunity to study chemistry, physics, and biology. Our library has a pleasant atmosphere so we may study in quiet. Adjacent to it is to be the auditorium and music building. We all have our fingers crossed that maybe we'll graduate in it this year.

ADMINISTRATION

DEDICATION

Several years ago an energetic young man came to our progressing city of Sanford. His profession was that of a physician and surgeon. Not only did he bring many of us into the world, and heal our pains and bruises; he also assumed the office of chairman of our school board.

To a diligent, understanding individual we are proud to dedicate our annual. To you, Dr. F. L. Knight, who has the spirit of the "Forward Look" within you, we dedicate this 1957 issue of the Sandprints.

ADMINISTRATION

We all realize the countless hours you have spent working for us to have such a fine school. Sincerely, we thank you, Mr. "Mac," for all of your efforts to make ours a school of which to truly be proud.

Mr. M. A. McLeod, Superintendent

Mr. J. R. Odom, Principal

At times we are so very blind and do not discern the wonderful leader and guide you are, but ultimately we respect and love you for what you are.

Miss Ruth Cotton

Miss Cotton, aiding Marty with her Latin, teaches French, Latin, and English.

Mrs. Julia Ann McCracken

Besides teaching English and Spanish, Mrs. McCracken is to be the director of the Senior Play.

Today good students,
Good luck.
Julianne
McCracken

Mr. Jerry M. Moody

Jovial Mr. Moody has classes in English and is advisor to the Student Council.

FACULTY

Progress is their most important product . . . .

Mrs. Freda Kriminger

English is Mrs. Kriminger's subject. Also she leads the Beta Club.

Miss Jean Bordeaux

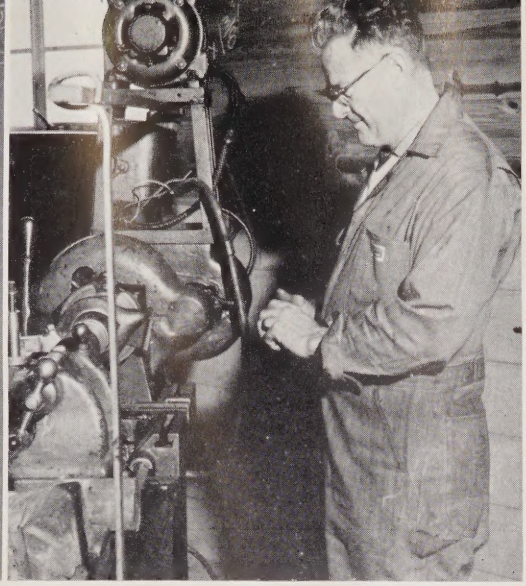
Shown helping a student with her typewriter, Miss Bordeaux teaches commercial courses plus coaching the girls' basketball team.

Miss Iris Matthews

With Miss Bordeaux, Miss Matthews holds up our commercial courses. Also they advise the production of the Panorama.

Miss Hope Lowman

In her first year of teaching Miss Lowman has proved herself well in instructing the math courses, and advising the Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y.



Mr. Vance Hulbert

Instructor of the machine shop is Mr. Hulbert's job.

Mrs. Sue S. Phillips

In our science building Mrs. Phillips teaches biology, physics, and chemistry; and advises the Science Club with Miss Aycock.

FACULTY

Miss Mary Lou Aycock

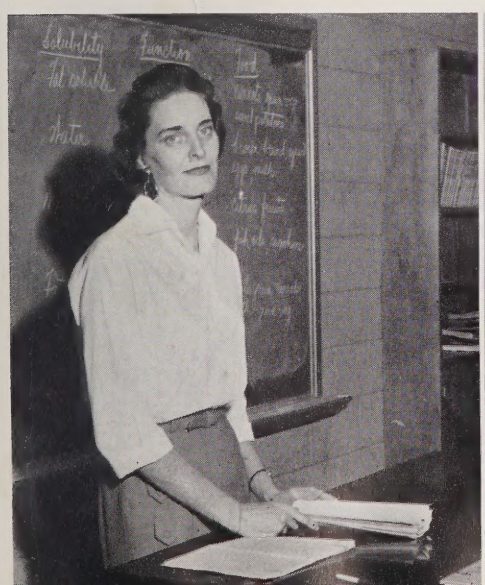
Biology and geography are Miss Aycock's courses, and she advises the Science Club.

Mrs. Helen Dusenbury

Proud of the Home Economics Department, Mrs. Dusenbury aids the girls in all aspects of homemaking.

Mr. S. Del Mastro

Besides being advisor of the Key Club, Mr. Del Mastro has charge of the Diversified Occupations.



Mrs. Edna Earl Yarborough

Thanks to Mrs. Yarborough's efforts we have a splendid Glee Club. She also teaches history and advises the F.T.A. Club.

Mr. Earl Braunhardt

Another new-comer is Mr. Braunhardt, director of the band. Under his enthusiastic leadership, the band has grown into one to be proud of.

Mrs. Jane Barringer

We often see our history teacher pointing out something on a map. Besides history, Mrs. Barringer advises Senior Tri-Hi-Y and the Senior Class.

FACULTY

Mrs. Lynda Bowers

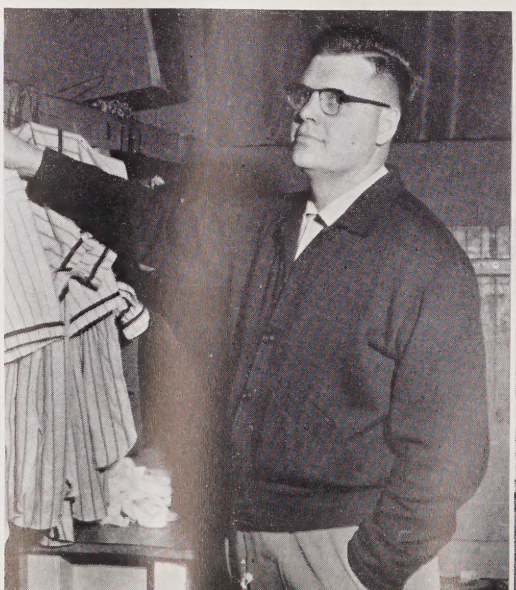
Patiently pointing out something to one of her physical education girls, Mrs. Bowers also has charge of the Jr.-Sr. Prom, and the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y.

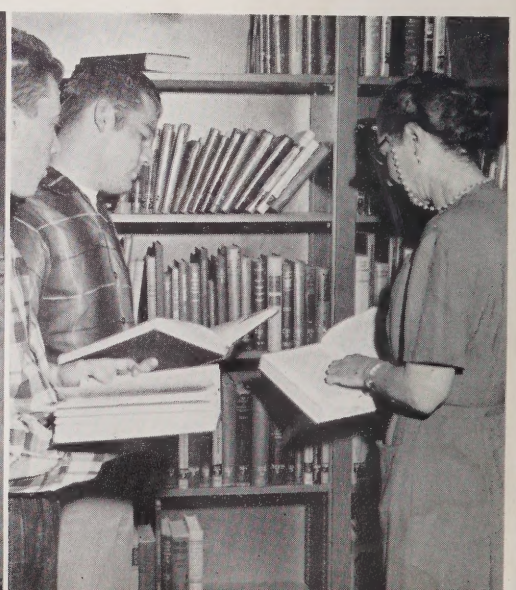
Mr. K. R. Reynolds

Anticipating the coming spring, Mr. Reynolds inspects the baseball uniforms. Instructing boys' classes in Phys. Ed. and coaching football and baseball are his jobs.

Miss Mary Lee Jackson

The library constantly keeps Miss Jackson on the job, besides being advisor of the Sandprints.





Mr. John B. Lipcomb

Mr. Lipcomb, from Jonesboro, teaches agriculture at Central.

Miss Dannie C. Thomas

Helping Mr. Odom and Mr. McLeod in the office is what Miss Thomas does.

Mrs. Cornelia Edwards

Besides being advisor of the city schools, Mrs. Edwards teaches English at Central.

F A C U L T Y

Miss Matthews, Mr. Moody, and Mrs. Kriminger prepare for the coming year.

What did you say?

CLASS OF 1957

Let's stop looking into the future for a moment to ponder on all of the dear memories of our years at Central.

Remember the spectacular Jr.-Sr. Prom, which we all had a part in? No one could forget that dreamy night as we were surrounded by the romance of the sea . . .

The pretty mermaid is Barbara Cox.

The pink, glittering coral, the colorful fish, and the dreamy music set the mood for the dance figure.

Remember the enormous ship in which the orchestra sat?

SANDPRINTS

I'm the 1957 SANDPRINTS, and on this page is my heart and my life blood. My pages represent the planning, organization, and hard work of this year's staff, who have endeavored to give me a unique personality. Sincerely I have meant to offend no one with my unintentional mistakes. As you leaf through my pages, I hope you will share my spirit which will make your year at Central—1957—long to be remembered with pleasant and lasting memories . . .

PANORAMA

The last stencil having been cut, the final page having been proof-read, the Panorama is ready to roll. After stapling the last pages together, its readers are at at last engrossed in it. Because of its efficient and hard-working staff, the Panorama has grown to be a wonderful school paper. It has well reflected the activities and events at Central during the year 1957.

It takes teamwork to assemble the PANORAMA

"To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character." The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs of Central have certainly lived up to their purpose this year by sponsoring orphans, having charge of the religious chapel programs, giving a donation to to the World Service Project, and heading the Easter Seal Drive for crippled children.

Yes, Central is progressing and growing. Through organizations like our Hi-Y's and Tri-Hi-Y's, we have the opportunity to grow spiritually, mentally, and physically.

ATHLETICS

F O O T B A L L 1 9 5 6

Following three consecutive seasons of unsuccessful football, the Jackets seemed doomed for this fate again. Hit hard by graduation, Coach Bob Reynolds, relying on new strategy, switched to the single wing. In the initial contests, strategy did not seem to be paying off, but against Raeford, an intercepted pass changed the whole outcome of the grid season. The Jackets continued to roll as they racked up their second and third wins against Laurinburg and Lumberton by exorbitant sums. Facing the stiffest test of the season, the Jackets hopes of overtaking Rockingham were marred by costly errors. Although the Jackets outplayed them statistically, we could not capitalize on opportunities. After edging Whiteville in a close tilt, the Jackets were tied by a determined Dunn eleven in the Annual Homecoming. In showing mid-season form, the iron-clad men of Coach Reynolds rolled over Tabor City and stunned the Red Rams of Hamlet in the season finale. By compiling a 6-3-1 record, the Jackets regained the prestige lost in the previous season.

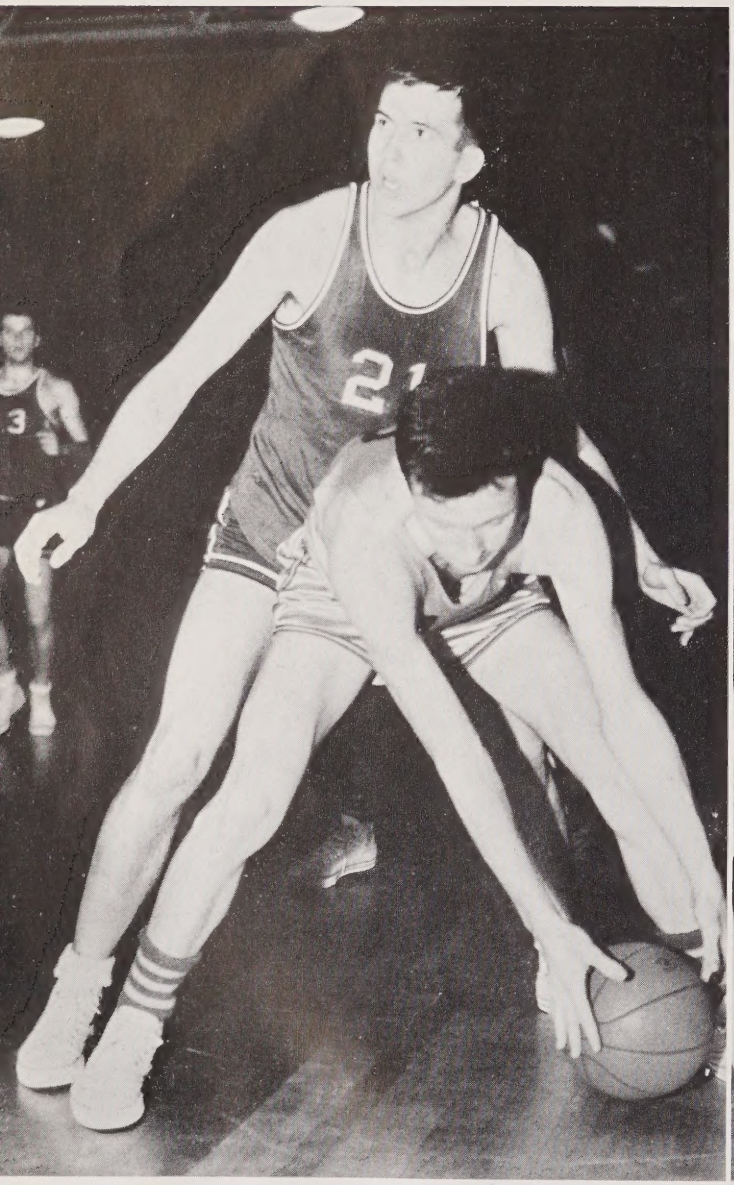
"ON TO THE TOP"

In taking over the position of cage mentor at Central High, Coach Toddy Fennel was faced with the task of rebuilding another championship team. With only five lettermen back from last year's State Runner-Ups, Coach Fennel was faced with a team composed mostly of Sophomores. Confronted with the hardest schedule in the school's history, the team fared well in the early stages of the season. Although the Jackets were not favored to defend their Conference Crown, only a two-point overtime loss to Rockingham marred their conference slate. By ending up in a tie for first place with the Rockets, these two teams engaged in a play-off game for the conference title, won by Rockingham. In the district tournament the Jackets began with a bang by edging the Wadesboro Tigers, but were upset by Laurinburg in the finals of the tournament. Winding up with a successful season, the Jackets had a record of 15 wins against 8 losses. Central was well represented and exceedingly proud of this spirited group.

B A S K E T B A L L



Co-captain, Perry Holland, saves the ball for the Jackets.

As Scott Williamson looks on, Buster Harrill manages to rack up two more points.

NEARING THE TOP

After just missing the Conference Championship last year, Coach Jean Bordeaux was also faced with an inexperienced squad. But aided by the talents of some new faces, Coach Bordeaux quickly shaped her squad into a potent club. After composing an amazing record, the Jackettes sewed up the Conference crown with two victories over defending champion Raeford. By losing only one game by one point in an upset, the Jackettes had won the first Conference Championship in the last five years. The next event on the Jackettes' schedule was the Invitational Tournament in Fayetteville. After vigorous playing, the Jackettes achieved third place in the tournament.

B A S E B A L L

"ON THE WAY TO THE TOP"

In compiling an 8-5 overall record in 1956, the Central High Baseball squad wound up in second place in the conference play with a 6-4 record. Due to the illness of the weather, the Jackets were not able to compete in the District play-offs. This came as a blow to the Jackets, who were on the path of regaining the form of the 1952-1954 championship teams. Having five members hitting over .300, and behind the pitching of its two ace hurlers, combined with a never-dying spirit, the Jackets were highly respected in the conference. With the graduation of only four members, the Jackets are expected to continue their rise to stardom on the diamond during the 1957 season.

Mary Lee Jackson

Carolyn,

I have certainly enjoyed your wonderful friendship in the past years. We have had some good times, haven't we? You mustn't ever forget the swell times at "Good Old" "Central," for some of them have meant a lot to us.

Although this is our last year, please remember our friendship always. You are a sweet and lovely person to know.

May God bless you always and may His light shine upon you in the days to come. Best wishes to a brighter future. Love always,

Nancy Garner

Carolyn,
I've certainly enjoyed knowing you. I'll never forget the eighth grade, will you? Stay as sweet and cute as you are now and
you be a success.
Don't worry about boys (one in particular).
They're all real mean. Good luck.
Love always,
Betsy Love

Carolyn, It sure has been a real pleasure knowing you. We have certainly had some nice times together, Carolyn, & I know we may think this is the end but it has only started. Be sweet always and of life. You can achieve the highest goals and things you so desire if you put your heart in everything you do. Good luck always and ~~God~~ may God bless you. Love Ya!

Barbara

Carolyn,

We have had a nice year. You have helped make it one of my best.

Remember the night of Jr.-Sr. I surely did enjoy going with you and the rest of the girls.

I hope you and all the other girls will come up to see me after we are married. I would love having all of you.

I know it will not be long before I will here of you and Dulane getting married. It's nothing like it. I don't think I could be any happier.

Take care of yourself. Good luck

a loving friend,
Barbara

Best of luck to a very nice girl. I sure have enjoyed being in friend with you these last two years.

Lots of luck,
Linda D.

To the old friend who thought she was going to make me sing "Today" with your sweet [illegible]
I know you make a success of life.
Lovingly,
Kathryn

Carolyn,
Best wishes to a very sweet girl. I shall always remember our times at Pinebaro, Lee and out of school. The I shall always remember you all now. Stay sweet girl you all and you'll go far in life, and you'll be happy, honey, and you'll have much luck with that blue and white chevy. Maybe it will wake up one of these days.

Love Always,
Faye Johnson

Carolyn, I wish you the best of luck in everything.
